BIO

Sharon Hamilton is a New York Times and USA Today bestselling author most known for her SEAL Brotherhood series.

Her Golden Vampires of Tuscany are not like any vamps you've read before, since they don't have to go to the ground, and can walk around in the full light of the sun.

Sharon's Guardian Angels struggle with the human charges they are sent to save, often escaping their vanilla world of Heaven for the brief human one. You won't find any of these beings in any Sunday school class.

All of Sharon's books are available as eBooks, paperbacks, and audiobooks.

A lifelong organic gardener, Sharon lives with her husband on Florida's Gulf Coast, a setting that has inspired many of her SEAL romances.

When she's not writing, she's getting verra verra dirty in the mud, or wandering farmer's markets looking for new heirloom varieties of vegetables and flowers.
